Making a difference

Memory (shown here) is a teacher for kids who are orphans or from very disadvantaged homes.

In Africa these children would need to pay some money to go to school. Your purchases from Africa Imports support 4 different schools in Africa. The school that Memory works in takes these kids in without any fees.

Memory's love for the kids is really impressive to see. She wanted so much to help them that she worked for free for a year before we started supporting the school. Although she could be a paid teacher in a government school, she made a big sacrifice to be a teacher for these kids with no one else to do this for them.

Thank you again for your business. It allows us to be a part of what Memory and many other people in Africa are doing to make a difference in their communities.

Making a difference

Right now there is a very bad drought in a large part of Africa. During this time of drought, your purchases have made a big difference in many people's lives in Africa. Last month we were able to spend an extra donation to about 100 different families. The difference this is making to the people receiving it has been dramatic to hear about. Thank you again being a part of this help to others in very difficult situations.

The Original and Authentic D'Jembe

We have these drums in all sizes and they are easy to play. D'Jembe (pronounced Jem'Bay) drums are hand-carved and hand-strung for quality. They offer the authentic, African experience, so check online for the latest stock.

Quality Assurance

D'Jembe drums are made in the bush areas of Africa. However, every drum is checked for:

- Head ring and string tightness
- Level head with no holes
- No imperfections in wood base and bowl
- Fist-size sound openings between base and bowl

Each drum is uniquely made. No drum is perfect.

I love this drum even my African husband and friend love it they're from Ghana, you could see the pride in their voices and faces..

How to Play the D'jembe Drum

There are 3 basic sounds made on the D'Jembe; bass, tone, and slap. These 3 sounds are made by hitting the D'Jembe different ways.

When playing, position the drum to have the bottom of the D'Jembe slightly tipped up, this way the sound can go out.

African art can be extremely beneficial to your business. Displaying African art in your store can not only give it an African feel and atmosphere, it can draw people in and create conversation and interest. Many people love African art, especially around the holidays when they're looking for a unique gift. While people may not need to repeatedly restock on art as they do with soap, they still love to find unique pieces of art that give them a piece of African life and culture. It's hard to find true African art anywhere. You can find many affordable choices that give your customers a way to own a piece of the motherland and experience authentic African beauty.

Tried and True Methods for Selling African Art

- Display your art throughout your store, in your window or on your walls. It's a great way to generate interest and draw in more passers-by.
- Show your art on social media! Take pictures of how you're using African art in your own home - whether it's a salad set, your new key chain, or some framed banana leaf paintings. Social media can give you many ways to connect with art enthusiasts and network with people who would be interested in what you're offering.
- Try selling on eBay, Etsy or Craigslist. Many people start online when they're looking for something unique like African art. They may not know where to go to look for it at a physical store, so they may start online. Try to keep some of your art pieces always available on these sites.
- Set up a booth at a flea market or festival! Artwork sells well at these venues, and gives you the chance to find new customers as well!

African art can grow your business. Displaying African art in your store can give it an African feel and atmosphere. It can draw people in; create conversation; and grow interest.

Making a difference

For about 10 years, different groups of orphan children have been given groceries that are paid for from your purchases at Africa Imports. This not only gives each of these children food, but also gives them a sense of dignity and value when they can provide something to the home of their foster parents. The photo shows some of these children waiting to receive their groceries.

Get Health – Get rid of bad taste

Bitters can work wonders. They are some of the most popular products we offer. But most people say they taste really bad. Try a drop, and you'll see why.

To get the good-for-you that you need, mix two teaspoons of bitters in a full glass of water. They go down easy this way.

Or, add it to a smoothie or other drink. Bitters are also used in some alcoholic mixed drinks.

What is the difference between fragrance oil and essential oil?

Essential Oils

- Made from plants and other natural products
- Steam distilled to produce the oil
- Completely natural
- More expensive
- Not available for most fragrances
- Designer-named fragrance oils are never essential oils

Fragrance Oils

- Fragrance oils are used to make perfumes, cosmetics, and flavorings.
- They can be made to almost any fragrance, not just nature scents,
- Cost is normally much lower than the essential oils.
- More options, and a lot more fragrance for your money.

What is the difference between oils that you burn and oils that you wear?

There is no difference in the oil itself. Some oils are popular for burning, because people like that fragrance in their home - you can think of cherry or frankincense. Other oils are most popular as perfumes. A person may not want to smell like cherry, and may not want their house to smell like Chanel #5. But a person can wear cherry and can burn Chanel #5 if they want to.

Carrier (cutting) oils

Help your oils last longer

Normally our customers sell the oils uncut. There are times when oils need to be cut, however. DPG is normally mixed with oils when they are being used in an oil burner or in making incense. Grapeseed oil is the lowest priced carrier oils, it works great for massage, aromatherapy or whenever it is on your skin.

DPG (for oil burners and incense making)

(1 lb). O-DPG $9.95

Grapeseed Oil (for wearing)

(1 lb). O-510 $9.95
1 Gallon O-510G $49.95
