A beginner’s guide to MUDCLOTH FASHIONS

Mudcloth, or bogalonfini, is a gorgeous fabric that is completely hand-woven and dyed in West Africa. Each of the symbols and colors used in mudcloth has a distinctive meaning and is usually a way for the artist, or maker of the mudcloth, to tell a story of their life or their village. Find out more on the next page!