Tried and True Methods for Selling Oils

- Display oils on your store counter. When people are about to leave a shop they often find it hard to resist adding one last inexpensive product to their order. Fragrance oils are inexpensive, fun and customers come back for more.
- Get a sample set of oils and let your customers smell and sample them. Trying different products is the best way to get customers interested, giving you the opportunity to sell them sugar bottles and burners.
- Offer a promotion in your store and use oils as an incentive. Promotions like "Buy 2 oils, get one free" or "Spend $20 and get one free oil" are a great way to get people to try out oils and increase your sales.

What is the difference between fragrance oil and essential oil?

Essential Oils

- Made from plants and other natural products
- Steam distilled to produce the oil
- Completely natural
- More expensive
- Not available for most fragrances
- Designer-named fragrance oils are never essential oils

Fragrance Oils

- Fragrance oils are used to make perfumes, cosmetics, and flavorings.
- They can be made to almost any fragrance, not just nature scents,
- Cost is normally much lower than the essential oils.
- More options, and a lot more fragrance for your money.

What is the difference between oils that you burn and oils that you wear?

There is no difference in the oil itself. Some oils are popular for burning, because people like that fragrance in their home - you can think of cherry or frankincense. Other oils are most popular as perfumes. A person may not want to smell like cherry, and may not want their house to smell like Chanel #5. But a person can wear cherry and can burn Chanel #5 if they want to.

Carrier (cutting) oils

Help your oils last longer

Normally our customers sell the oils uncut. There are times when oils need to be cut, however. DPG is normally mixed with oils when they are being used in an oil burner or in making incense. Grapeseed oil is the lowest priced carrier oils, it works great for massage and aromatherapy.

One of the people who your purchases supports is a man named Golden Kateya. He is shown here teaching a group of adults, and at the far left in the large group photo. Golden has organized over 100 community groups in different villages called self-help groups. These are normally small groups of women who work together to make businesses for themselves.

They pool their money, work and talent to create businesses to support themselves. Golden has been doing this for about five years now, and has seen hundreds of people helped towards a better future. He is shown here with his class and with many of the other people in a very remote village in rural Zambia where he was doing training recently.

New School For Orphans

For the last 10 years, Africa Imports has been supporting Good News School in Zambia. This school serves orphan children and children from homes without enough money to pay for the public school costs. You can see the kids from a visit we made to the school about 3 1/2 years ago in a video here <https://youtu.be/3ZF7JcA6uw4>

After many years on the shore of Lake Tanganyika, the lake level has risen so much that the school property and buildings will no longer be usable soon. Some other people in Europe have helped to pay for this new school building (attached photo). Compared to the buildings that the school used before, this is a very nice building.

Your purchases from Africa Imports pay the wages for many of the teachers at Good news school. This also pays for at least one meal each day for the kids, and for some of the other costs of running this school. There are over 200 children who are receiving an education and meals from the purchases you make from Africa Imports. Thanks to some other donors, they now have a much better building to receive an education with.

Helping people with no access to medical care

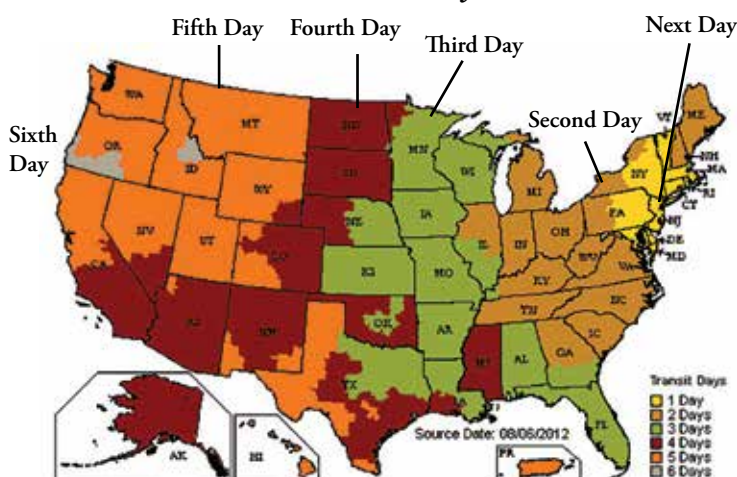

Ferdinand (shown in the photo with the face mask) is a trained nurse. He travels to remote rural villages where people have no other medical care, and provides whatever basic help he can.

Ferdinand's life is a real inspiration. He started doing this work with no pay at all. He once lived in a village to help people where he could not speak the language, and where people did not trust him at first. Although he did not have money to help people then, he worked every day building simple houses for old people in need who could not do physical work themselves. The people in the village were very impressed when they saw this, and he was then trusted to help them with some of their medical needs. All without being paid anything.

Your purchases with Africa Imports pay Ferdinand's living costs now, and allow him to follow his passion to help people in need more than he could before.

People

who are making a difference in Africa

All of the people shown here receive a part of their income from your purchases from Africa Imports. Half of our profits are used to help people with education, medical care, and job training in Africa. There are also over 600 children in need who receive meals each day from this money. The actual work is all completely organized and operated by African people. We are still very involved with each person shown here with the individual work that they do.
